Brainminders- Pat is checking with Joe's Club and Sarah Care to see if a program can be given there

PIFF- No Report

PSHF- Thank you for donations, year-end financial reports were emailed out, they are asking for gift cards to be used at the next convention. The Scholarship houses will be opened this year.

Fundraising- Bennigan's Kickback night- you promote people to come to Bennigan's on a certain date (dine in or take out), 15% of sales for anyone who says they were invited by a Pilot they will be given to the club. We can schedule the event any day Sun-Wed, and we be able to set up a table to advertise the Pilot Club, do 50-50, baskets, etc.

Membership- Survey's were collected at the meeting and they can still be emailed to Barbara; the Membership Division will review them, Projects- Project Suds is meeting every other week and we will prepare the Wellness Bags in November for them; Greenwood Place would like our club to continue birthday celebrations providing them with 48 cupcakes and cards; next month we will be discussing recipients for the Fashion Show- if you have any new charities be prepared to tell something about them; Salvation Army shelves are empty and they need food; Pridmore doesn't need Welcome Baskets or school supplies, but they need mattress covers and bed bug covers for single beds and cribs, they also need food donations especially can vegetables, rice, spaghetti sauce, and pasta; our club was given some gift cards last year after the Fashion Show and they will be saved for the District Convention.

Projects- Jane contacted the teacher at Ocean Breeze Elementary and they still would like us to save plastic caps.
